Notice To Community Calendar Users
 The Community Calendar is designed to give organizations the opportunity to notify the general public of upcoming events. Community Calendar will not publish advertisements from political parties, or serve as a means of announcing winners of draws. Items appear as space permits in time to alert the public to the event. The Calendar should be used for announcing non-profit community events which are open to the general public. Notices which are of an ongoing nature appear as space permits. The Calendar is a free service. Paid notices can be booked through the advertising department.
