

OBITUARIES

An inherited love of music had led Nancy, as a child, to compete in national classical piano competitions. As an adult, this love of music continued as she played chamber music with her friends over the years. She was also well-known for leading family & friends in singing Christmas carols at her annual Christmas parties.

Loved for her sense of humor and her unruly Jack Russell dogs, she was adored by many friends who appreciated her zest for life, and fierce devotion to family, friends, and many good causes. She was an avid gardener and also exhibited natural athletic talent on the Philadelphia Mill Dam Tennis Team and Country Club of Fairfield's paddle tennis team.

Nancy is survived by her sister, Ms. Joan Titus of Sooke, British Columbia, her husband, David MacKenzie, and four children, L. Clarke Blynn, H. Reid Blynn, Jr., Frances Blynn Baxter and Alexandra Blynn Smith and 10 grandchildren.

A memorial service was held for family and friends on Tuesday, August 17th, at the Country Club of Fairfield in Fairfield, CT.

Donations can be made in Nancy Mackenzie's name to an Ovarian Cancer Tribute fund at Sloan Kettering Memorial Cancer Center. Please send it to: Mr. Preston Curtis, Development Office, MSKCC, 633 3rd Ave, 28th Floor, NY, NY 10017.
