

North Shore community light-up & Christmas Concert

The children of the communities formed a complete manger scene with readings of the Birth of Christ, and with the children still on stage, Bill Connely told the story of the Night Before Christmas. Children taking part were, Nicholas Erickson, Brook MacAulay, James MacRae, Kailea Morrison, Bhreagh Smith, Megan Daisley, Sarah Daisley, Sophia Brownstein, Chloe MacAskill, Dorena Brownstein, ShaeLynn MacAskill, Geordie MacAskill, Jensen Erickson, Thomas Morrison, Cerah MacDonald, Borden MacDonald, Nikita MacRae, Lauchlan Finney and Braidon Brown.

A Carol Sing followed, lead by Ian Green.

We then proceeded to the North Shore Fire Hall. We were greeted by Marilyn MacLeod, Penny Green and to the music of Rocky Shores while programs were distributed. Tea, coffee, cider, short bread cookies and oatcakes were served.

Home made fudge was sold along with tickets on a basket of goodies donated by Angelo Iannetti. A free will offering was collected with all proceeds going to Christmas Daddies. A total of $1,088 was reached for the cause.

MC for the concert was Ernie MacAulay and selections of music were presented by the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church Choir, Amber Buchanan's Gaelic group, The Praise Singers, St. Ann's Bay United Church Choir and Darryl Keigan.

The firemen and fireladies recited a presentation of their own version of the "Night Before Christmas".

A visit from Santa completed the evening.

The communities of Englishtown, North River, North Shore and Areas came together, November on 26th.

The evening began with a light up of a Christmas Tree planted by the Arboretum Society and St. Anns Bay United Church in memory of the late John Graham MacInnis. Everyone present was given a candle. A glow of lights and people surrounded the tree. Dianne Kempt DLM opened with thoughts and prayers.
