

OBITUARIES

Kathleen (Bonaparte) MacLean

It is with sadness and deep regret that we the family announce the passing of our mother, Kathleen MacLean, at the Northside Community Guest Home on April 5, 2011, with her family by her side.

Born in MacKinnon's Harbour, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Mary (Mombourquette) Bonaparte. She was a member of the Sacred Heart Mission, Mackinnons Harbour.

Mom is survived by her companion, Leo MacLean; son, Leonard (Cathy), Chicago; daughters, Mae (John Angus) Matheson, Little Narrows; Ann (Brian) Whittleton, Edmonton; Marguerite (Duncan) MacNeil MacKinnon's Harbour; Sadie (Charles) MacDonald, Ottawa Brook. She will be sadly missed by her 11 grandchildren, Tabitha, Byron, Donna, Melissa, Sue-Ann, Lenise, Brendan, Patty, Charlene, Julie and Alicia; her 15 great-grandchildren; one brother-in-law, Michael (Shortie) MacNeil and many nieces and nephews. She was the last surviving member of her family.

She was predeceased by her husband, Leonard; grandson, Leonard Matheson; sisters, Anna Baily, Bertha MacLeod, Rita MacInnis, Cecelia MacNeil, Nora Gagne, Annie MacNeil; brothers, Charlie, Felix, Abe, Leo and a brother in infancy; also by several brothers and sisters-in-law.

Mom worked at the Highland Village Museum, as an interpreter, where she made many friends and will be fondly remembered for her quick wit and sense of humour.

While at home Mom enjoyed playing cards, doing puzzles and listening to fiddle music. She loved seeing her regular visitors, and truly enjoyed Gregory's biscuits. Mom also spent a lot of time with her special friend Darcy, with whom she shared many apples.

Burial in Sacred Heart Mission Cemetery, MacKinnon Harbour, N.S.

Josephine MacLean

Josephine died peacefully on Tuesday, April 5, 2011 at home surrounded by her family.

Born in St. Margaret's Village, Victoria County on April 20, 1921 she was the daughter of the late Patrick and Lena (Capstick) LaRusic.

She graduated from Normal College in 1941 and later taught in Bay St. Lawrence, Dingwall, Ingonish and Washabuck. She was a founding member of the Home and School Association in Dingwall and Washabuck. In later years she worked at the Oyster Farm in Portage, Victoria County.

She was a dedicated community member who gave generously of her time as a member of the Holy Rosary Altar Society and Washabuck Community Centre and was a member of the St. Columba Parish CWL. She was well known for her Scottish oatcakes and generous donation of baked goods to community events. She enjoyed sewing and quilting and taught sewing in the community for several years. She was awarded "Volunteer of the Year" in 1993. She was an avid card player and provider of many sets of homemade mittens and socks for her children and grandchildren. She rooted for the Blue Jays and was an avid fan of curling and golf.

She is survived by seven daughters, Anne Chisholm, (John) Antigonish; Sandra Stevens (David), Cole Harbour, Alice MacLean (Bruce Campbell) Calgary; Martina MacLean (Michael Ervin) Calgary; Joanne Dalton (Andrew) Halifax; Theresa MacIsaac, (Anthony) Cole Harbour; Maureen MacLean May (Darrell) Chezzetcook; and one son Jim (Sandra Sampson) Lower Sackville; two sisters Evelyn Lindsay, Antigonish; Theresa Turner, Neil's Harbour; brothers, Jim, Bay St. Lawrence; Ignatius, Montreal; and Joe, B.C.; 17 grandchildren, Donald (Kellie) & Julie Chisholm (Aly Mawji), Denise Stevens, Leslie and Daryl Campbell, Brendan Ervin, Kim Dabrowski (Dominik), Jennifer, Leslie, Andrew and Patrick Dalton, Karl (Tara) Kyle and Daniel MacIsaac, Colin MacLean (Amy) and Cally and Cameron May and nine great-grandchildren Jayden & Lexie Stevens, Emily and Shelby Chisholm, Nahla Mawji, Hendryk and Arthur Dabrowski, Bronwyn MacIsaac and Charlotte MacLean.

She was predeceased by her husband Joseph (Joe Red Rory) MacLean (1998); grandson Jeffrey Stevens (2002); sisters, Anne McEvoy, Mary Chenier, Rita MacDougall and Sister Patrice LaRusic CSM and brothers Emery, Tim and Tony.

Interment will take place in Holy Rosary Cemetery, Washabuck. Memorial donations in Josie's memory may be made to the Holy Rosary Cemetery Fund, Washabuck Community Centre or charity of choice.

John Hector MacKenzie

We regret to announce the passing of our father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather, Hector MacKenzie. Hector passed away peacefully in Harbour View Hospital where he had been a resident for the past two years.

Born on Church Road, Boularderie, he was a son of the late Dan Murdock and Annie Mae (MacDermid) MacKenzie.

Hector served with the Canadian Army RCEME and was a veteran of the Second World War. For most of his life he was a resident of Millville and worked for the Department of Highways for many years. He enjoyed gardening, hunting and fishing. Hector was a member and Elder of St. James Presbyterian Church and a member of the Florence Legion No. 83. He was also a member of the Royal Oak Lodge No. 85, the Senior & Pensioners Club in Bras d'Or and a former member of the Bras d'Or Wildlife Association.

Hector is survived by his daughters, Beverly (Tony) Millar-Derr, Vernon, B.C. and Joan (Devlin) Vickers, Millville; grandchildren, Jim, Holly, Suzanne, Patricia, Darren and Scott; great-grandchildren, Caroline, Darlene, Joey, Kaitlyn, Juliana, Bradley, Joshua, Krista, Merrin, Mitchell, Isaac and James; great-great-grandson, Brody; brothers, Donald, Hunters Mountain; Rae, Hamilton Ontario; sisters-in-law, Thelma Cook, Carrie and Ruth MacKenzie.

Besides his parents, Hector was predeceased by his wife, Florence (Hadley) in 2003; brothers, Harold, Bob, Kenneth and Murdock; sisters, Mary MacAulay and Agnes MacKillop.

Interment will be in Black Rock Cemetery at a later date. Memorial donations can be made to St. James Presbyterian Church or a charity of your choice.

Kenneth David MacQuarrie

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of a wonderful husband, father, brother and uncle.

Kenneth David MacQuarrie, 61, of Baddeck Inlet died April 8, 2011, at the Victoria County Memorial Hospital, Baddeck.

Kenny was born October 1, 1949, in Upper Middle River, son of the late Dave and Phoebe MacQuarrie. He was a member of St. Mark's Lodge #35, Philae Shrine Temple, Arm of Gold Shrine Club, U.A. of Plumbers and Pipe Fitters Local #56 and Nova Scotia Ground Water Association. Kenny owned and operated Baddeck Plumbing & Heating Ltd. for over 35 years serving a vast area of Cape Breton Island.

He is survived by his wife, the former Dawn MacDonald; son, Dana James; brother, William (Joy); sisters, Annabelle (Neil) Hallett, Marion (Harold) MacQuarrie/Buckley; nephews, Danny, Preston, Liam; nieces, Brenda and Debbie.

Kenny was predeceased by his son, Kenneth Scott and his parents.

Cremation has taken place. A private family burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Memorial donations in Kenny's memory can be made to Victoria County Memorial Hospital or a charity of choice.
