

Quilters season ends

Once again, a successful year for the Nimble Thimbles has come to a close. With 12 women attending from Cape North and surrounding areas, there were 14 quilts made, as well as tablecloths and placemats. The quilt shown in the photo was made by Sandra Dowling. It's hoped that all will attend next year. Thanks everyone for a great winter!

Cadets clean beach

The local Sea Cadet Corps, K147 Baddeck, participated in the “Great Nova Scotia Pick Me Up” recently. On April 23rd, 12 Cadets and 3 Officers collected garbage on Jersey Cove Beach. A dozen bags of litter from the beach were picked up. Items found included cans, bottles and pieces of plastic of every sort, colour and size. For lunch the Cadets were rewarded with military ration packs. Participants in the photo are: back row (l-r) Officer Don Tower, Robin McLellan, Thomas Kearney, Deanna Taillon, Robin Bethune, Brennan Ryan, Josh Parks and Officer Laura Dixon. In front are (l-r) Chris McLellan, Allie McLellan, Willie Taillon, Jordan Parks, Geordie MacAskill and Marc Bethune. Officer Bruce Nunn volunteered to take the photo.

Theatre on the Hill’s Community Choir Series

Special

Theatre on the Hill is excited about it’s newest creation, a 24 member Community Choir with members from Indian Brook to Bay St. Lawrence and ages from 8 to 68.

Meeting in various church and fire halls over the past 4 months they have learned many new skills and techniques for singing as well as shared lots of laughs while learning new songs. The concert has about a dozen songs from a variety of sources; Gaelic, Broadway, and Folk but the most exciting piece is the World Premier of the song “The Jolly Mummers” commissioned by Theatre on the Hill and composed by Nova Scotia’s own Scott MacMillan. Also one of the pieces the choir loves to sing is “Didn’t the Lord Deliver Daniel” a traditional spiritual with its uplifting beat.

Adrienne Chapman, the Choir’s professional Music Director, was a performer in two of the Theatre’s past productions, Oliver and had a leading role in Dear Edwina. Trained in Piano and Vocal Music she is passionate about Choral singing and has helped this group of untrained singers to bring out their best.

This new project could not have been possible without our funding partners, Municipality of Victoria County, Provincial Department of Culture, Victoria Country Community Health Board, Pepsi Co., and The North of Smokey Lion’s Club.

Performances are eagerly awaited and you can catch the choir at any one of three different locations and times: Saturday, May 7th - St. Peter’s Catholic Church, 8 pm Ingonish; Sunday, May 8th - 45943 Cabot Trail, Indian Brook, (Former Knox Presbyterian Church) 2:30 pm Matinee; Sunday, May 15th - St. Andrews Anglican Church, Neil’s Harbour, 2:30 pm Matinee. Tickets $6 at the door (cash only). www.Theatreonthehill.net theatreonthehill@hotmail.com (902) 929-1018
